

Ten Commands: God's Unspoken Promises Word Scramble

#1) Have no other gods.

For every "do not" commandment, there is a wonderful unspoken promise from God. In this commandment, we learn that God is the one true God who created us, loves us, and is powerful enough to help us. Following false gods won't help us and will lead us away from the one true God.

Unscramble the words from the following Bible verse to discover God's promise as to why we should have no other gods.
